

Erasmus Guidelines: Human and Social Sciences (UniBg)

Incoming students are officially enrolled in the department the University of BERGAMO with which their home universities have signed the Erasmus+ agreement. It is not possible to change Department.

HUMAN AND SOCIAL SCIENCE Department include following curricula:

Human movement and sport sciences, Educational studies, Clinical psychology, Psychological studies, Primary teacher education

COURSES SELECTION:

Students can choose exams from the entire Catalogue of university courses, also from different departments without restriction, as long as the 50% of courses are held in the department in which the student is officially enrolled. (HUMAN AND SOCIAL SCIENCE)

Here you find a complete guide about how to choose courses in our university.

At the Department HUMAN AND SOCIAL SCIENCE, most of the courses offered at Bachelor level are taught in Italian. You can find English taught courses at Master level

If you decide to take a course held in Italian:

- ALWAYS check the prerequisites for each course in the syllabus
- 1st, 2nd or 3rd year Bachelor students should check the prerequisites of each course in the syllabus at <https://unibg.coursecatalogue.cineca.it/> or contact the professor but in principle they can choose courses offered by any Bachelor and Master course

RESTRICTIONS:

- ERASMUS STUDENTS cannot choose courses offered in other campuses such as Pavia or Milan.
- 3 credits laboratories cannot be chosen
- Not all courses cannot be divided in modules, please check very carefully the course catalogue and ask to the professor during the first lessons. The code of the module should be exactly included in the learning agreement
