

Residence Permit Application guide for Non-Eu Students

If a NON-EU student holds a Visa for study purposes and plans to come to Italy for more than 90 days, once arrived he/she must request a Residence Permit. If the student does not complete the studies before the residence permit expires, she/he will have to request the renewal of the residence permit.

Within 8 days from your arrival in Italy you must submit your request for the Residence Permit to the competent Police station (in Italy Questura) through the kit available at the Post Office or Patronato Offices.

The International office will support you in collecting the required documents

APPLICATION STEPS

STEP 1- Collect all needed documents

Please collect the copies of all the needed documents:
